No prior art disclosing or suggesting the claimed instant process was found in the prior art. The closest art relevant to the instant invention was found in EP 1205464 (2002).

The said EP patent discloses the same compounds and methods of the instant invention.

Nonetheless, the said reference is not prior art because:

- It is the work of the same inventors
- The instant invention has a filing date previous to the said patent and
- Both, the instant invention and EP 1205464 claim foreign priority to the same Japanese patent: JP 339437/200.

CONCLUSION
